

They Followed A Star: Astrology & Christianity As Allies On The Journey

A two-evening class:
With Dan Keusal, M.S., LMFT
Wednesday December 4th & 11th, 2019 6:30-8:30 PM

*"The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaims God's handiwork.
Day pours out the word to day, and night to night imparts knowledge."
~Psalm 19:2*

*"All are syllables of the great word that is very slowly spoken by the shining of the stars."
~Ursula Le Guin*

Astrology and Christianity are two wisdom traditions that haven't always worked and played well together down through the centuries. But in the spirit of building bridges in these divided and divisive times, this workshop offers a fresh look at the connections between them. Just as the Magi followed a star to find Jesus, we can look to the stars for insight and guidance as we discern how to align ourselves with Spirit. Drawing on biblical theology, psychology, music, poetry, and more, this two-part series will explore the common ground between Astrology & Christianity, and demonstrate how an individual's own astrological birth chart sheds light on important questions like "Why am I here? What is my purpose?" We'll also look at the essential role of free will, choice, and consciousness in responding to one's chart. And to bring it all down to earth, we'll analyze the chart of a well-known public figure in order to give participants a feel for the specific and valuable types of guidance that astrology can offer.
